RE: Antidumping Case on Certain Cold-rolled Stainless Steel Products

COMPANY NAME:

ADDRESS:

TELEPHONE NUMBER:

FACSIMILE NUMBER:

To whom it may concern:

In compliance with the decision of the Ministry of Finance (MOF) to initiate the preliminary investigation of the antidumping case on Certain Cold-rolled Stainless Steel Products from China and Korea, the International Trade Commission (ITC) of the Ministry of Economic Affairs is hereby sending you this summarized English inquiry along with the original copy of our official letter in Chinese.

Background

Yieh United Steel Corporation (YUSCO) and Tang Eng Iron Works Co., LTD. on behalf of the domestic industry filed a petition on July 17, 2012 with the MOF to impose antidumping duties on Certain Cold-rolled Stainless Steel Products from China and Korea. The MOF determined to initiate the investigation and transferred this case to the ITC on February 20, 2013 for preliminary injury investigation. The ITC, in accordance with Article 11 and Article 19 of the Regulations

Governing the Implementation of the Imposition of Countervailing and Anti-Dumping Duties, therefore instituted the preliminary injury investigation on February 22, 2013. A copy of the flowchart of the investigation procedure is enclosed. The Regulations Governing the Implementation of the Imposition of Countervailing and Anti-Dumping Duties can be found on our website:
